DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to amendment filed 03/10/05.
2. Claims 3-15, 20-41 and 47 are pending in the application.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 9, 15, 20, 21, the prior art does not teach defining a rule or rules for generating a moving viewpoint over the image for display to determine the moving viewpoint without input from a user; determining a display path moving between each index frame using the determined moving viewpoint, the display path following the determined order of display.

Claim 10, the prior art does not teach identifying a predefined image class wherein, in that image class, there are both image sub-parts having predefined characteristics, and dominant edges, lines or curves; and establishing index frames based on a close-up view of each identified image sub-part having predefined characteristic; defining a rule or rules for generating a moving viewpoint over the image for display to determine the moving viewpoint without input from a user; determining a display path moving between each index frame and following the dominant edges, lines or curves using the determined moving viewpoint; and output to a display device connected to the processing means, the video data representing displayable motion over the static image and being generated in accordance with the image content characteristics.

Claim 23, the prior art does not teach receiving an instruction for a user deleting the index frames, determining a second order of display of index frames such that the deleted index frame is not displayed.

Claims 24, 37 the prior art does not teach receiving an instruction for a user changing the order of display of index frames; determining a second order of display of the index frames corresponding to the changed order.

Claims 29, 47, the prior art does not teach detecting a direction of gaze of person in a scene of the static image, wherein the person is gazing at an object of interest shown on the static image; determining the order of display by displaying an index frame corresponding to the person and then displaying the object of interest where the direction of gaze of the person is directed at.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
